RULES AND REGULATIONS

RENDERING AND PAYMENT OF BILLS

Subscribers' bills are issued monthly. The Subscriber will receive bills on or about the same day of each month. Months are presumed to have 30 days. The billing date is dependent on the billing cycle assigned to the Subscriber. Each bill contains monthly recurring charges billed in advance, usage charges billed in arrears, and the last date for timely payment. Recurring charges for basic service will be prorated in the event that the service for which the charges are made is less than 30 days; except that the recurring monthly service charges for bundled service packages or optional plans that include intrastate, interstate, or international toll services are minimum monthly charges and are not eligible for proration.

Bills are due and payable as specified on the bill. Bills may be paid by mail, on-line, via automated payment, or in person at the Company's business office or an agency authorized to receive such payment. All charges for service are payable only in United States currency. Payment may be made by cash, check, money order, or cashier's check.

Subscribers' payments are considered prompt when received by the Company or its agent within the Due Date. Payments will be credited within 24 hours of receipt by the Company or its agent. The Due Date is the date listed on the cover page of the bill entitled "Payment Due Date" or such later date as set forth on the Subscriber's bill. A Subscriber must pay by the Due Date to timely pay the charges stated. The late payment date will be prominently displayed on the Customer's bill, along with a statement of charges the Subscriber may incur for late payment.

Except as otherwise provided, charges deemed delinquent will be subject to a late payment charge accruing at the rate of 1.5% per month from the due date on all delinquent amounts.

A bill will not include any previously unbilled charge for service furnished prior to three months immediately preceding the date of the bill, except charges for collect calls, credit card calls, third party calls, which have a five-month backbilling period. In the case of Subscriber fraud, this limitation on backbilling does not apply.

A charge of $15.00 or five percent (5%) of the amount of the check, whichever is greater, will apply whenever a check or draft presented for payment of service is not accepted by the institution on which it is written.

Any payment made by a subscriber shall be applied first against the balance due on that subscriber's basic service unless the subscriber directs otherwise.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

DISPUTED BILLS

In the event a Subscriber disputes the amount of a bill for the Company's service, the Company will, at the Subscriber's request, conduct an investigation and review of the disputed amount, reaching a determination and communicating it to the Subscriber in writing within 30 days. During the time the investigation is pending, no late charges or penalties will be collected, the charge will not be sent to collection, and no adverse credit report will be made based on non-payment of the charge. If the Subscriber prevails, then no late charge or penalty will be imposed on the amount in dispute. However, the undisputed portion of the bill must be paid within the Due Date or the Subscriber's service may be subject to disconnection if the Company has notified the Subscriber by written notice of such delinquency and impending termination. If, upon investigation and review of the bill by the Company, the Company denies all or part of the dispute, the Subscriber must pay the portion of the bill for which the dispute has been denied within 7 days after the Company communicates its findings to the Customer in writing. Should the portion of the bill for which the dispute has been denied remain unpaid for longer than these 7 days, then the Company may proceed to terminate service.

However, not less than seven days prior to discontinuing service, the Company will provide the Customer whose payments are overdue with a written notice compliant with Rule 8.5.b. above.

Customers may write the California Public Utilities Commission at Consumer Affairs Branch, 505 Van Ness Ave., San Francisco, CA 94102, or at www.cpuc.ca.gov, or call 1-800-649-7570 or TDD 1-800-229-6846, for any billing disputes they may not be able to resolve with the Company.

Service may not be discontinued for nonpayment of a disputed amount if the subscriber has: (a) submitted a claim to CAB for informal review; and (b) deposited the disputed amount with the Commission. During the time any CAB review is pending, no late charges or penalties may be collected, the charge may not be sent to collection, and no adverse credit report may be made based on non-payment of the charge.

Neither party to a complaint involving service to a Consumer (i.e., neither the Company nor Consumer) will hold the other responsible for costs resulting from complaints brought before the Commission, arbitrators, or any other agency.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

As set forth in Rule 3, Applicants for service shall remain liable for nonrecoverable costs of special arrangements and service.

The Company will not re-establish any service the Subscriber has requested to be cancelled without new authorization from the Subscriber. Authorization shall not be founded upon any term in an agreement for service that binds a consumer to again take service from the Company.

No minimum or termination charge will apply if service is terminated because of condemnation, destruction, or damage to the property by fire or other causes beyond the control of the Subscriber as determined solely by the Company.

SECTION 1 - RULES AND REGULATIONS (CONT'D)

CHANGE OF SERVICE PROVIDER

Solicitation of Customer Authorization for Service Termination and Transfer

Solicitations by the Company or other carriers, or their agents, of Subscriber authorization for termination of service with an existing carrier and the subsequent transfer to a new carrier must include information regarding the key rates, terms, and conditions of service with the new carrier. Such solicitations must conform to Public Utilities Code Section 2889.5. All such solicitations must be legible and printed in a minimum point size type of at least 10 points. In addition to other liability, a penalty or fine of up to $500 day apply for each violation of this rule.

Unauthorized Service Termination and Transfer

The Company concurs in, and complies with, both FCC Rules 47 CFR § 64.1100 et seq., and the “Rules Governing Slamming Complaints” set forth in CPUC General Order No. 168, Appendix A to CPUC Decision No. 04-05-057. The process available to the Consumer to remedy an unauthorized transfer is summarized below (please refer to CPUC General Order No. 168 for complete rules):

In the event the Company is advised by a Consumer that the Consumer was slammed, the Company shall attempt to resolve in good faith said claim and also may direct the Consumer to the CPUC Consumer Affairs Branch (“CAB”) for resolution of the complaint. In addition, the Company shall advise the Consumer that the Consumer is absolved of liability for any charges billed by the unauthorized carrier for the first 30 days of service if a finding by a regulatory body upholds the claim. If Company executed the allegedly unauthorized change on behalf of another carrier, the Company shall also notify such other carrier and the carrier that provided the service prior to the change.

If the Company is advised that it has allegedly slammed a Consumer, the Company must immediately remove any unpaid charges from its bill to the consumer for the first 30 days of service. If the Company elects to contest the slamming allegation, it shall notify the Consumer that the Consumer must file a complaint within 30 days after such notification or 30 days after removal of the charges from the bill, whichever occurs later. During such notification, the Company must inform the Consumer that the failure to timely file such a complaint will allow the Company to recommence billing the Consumer for service, including re-billing for the first 30 days of service, and will limit the Consumer’s remedies. No such recommencement of billing shall take place until the Consumer has been provided a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate timely filing of a complaint. After being advised of slamming allegations, the Company shall forward billing information for unpaid charges for service beyond the first 30 days to the authorized carrier, unless the Company has recommenced billing for such service following the Consumer’s failure to timely file a complaint with the CAB. Except as provided above, the Company shall not re-bill or recommence billing the Consumer unless it is determined by the CAB, CPUC, or a reviewing court, that the Consumer was not slammed, in which case, the Company may re-bill the Consumer for all charges as well as recommence billing.

Unauthorized Service Termination and Transfer

In the event, the Company does not contest a slamming allegation or the allegation is confirmed by the CAB, the Company shall be liable to the Consumer for any charge required to return the Consumer to the authorized Carrier's service. In addition, the Company shall pay the authorized carrier 150% of any payments it has received from the Consumer and shall include copies of its billings along with the remittance. In the event the Consumer requests the authorized carrier to re-rate charges paid by the Consumer to the Company based on rates the authorized carrier would have charged, and such re-rated amount exceeds 50% of the amount paid by the Consumer to the Company for the affected service, the Company shall also pay the authorized carrier the difference.

If the Company was the authorized carrier for a service to a Consumer affected by an alleged slam, the Company shall not bill the Consumer for any service provided during the first 30 days following the alleged slam by the Company or the alleged slammer. However, upon receipt of billing information from the alleged slammer, the Company shall be entitled to bill the Consumer for unpaid service provided after such 30 day period by either the Company or the alleged slammer. The amount of the billing may be determined either: by re-rating the charges based on the Company's rates that would have applied had the slam not occurred; or (ii) charging 50% of rate assessed by the alleged slammer; provided that, upon request, the Consumer shall have the right to receive billing based on re-rated charges. In addition, the Company shall be entitled to receive, from the alleged slammer, the Company's regular tariffed charges for re-establishing service to the Consumer. In the event the alleged slammer does not contest the slam or the allegation is confirmed by the CAB, the Company also shall be entitled to collect from the slammer 150% of any payments the slammer has received from the Consumer, along with copies of the slammer's billings. In addition, the slammer shall be liable to the Company for its costs of collection. Within 10 days of its receipt of such amount, the Company shall refund or credit one third of that amount to the Consumer. The Consumer may request that the Company re-rate charges paid by the Consumer to the slammer based on rates the Company would have charged. If such re-rated amount exceeds 50% of the amount paid by the Consumer to the slammer for the affected service, the Company shall seek payment of such difference, on the Consumer's behalf, from the slammer. Upon payment of any such refunds or credits, the Company shall notify the CAB. In the event the slammer does not pay such amounts within 45 days of notice from CAB that such payment is due, the Company shall notify the CAB and the Consumer and shall also notify the Consumer that the Consumer has the right to pursue an action for refund of all charges paid by the Consumer to the slammer.

Upon return to the Company's service following a slam, the Consumer shall be entitled, to the extent possible, to reinstatement to any premium program in which the Consumer was enrolled prior to the slam, if the Consumers enrollment in the program was terminated due the slam. If the Consumer paid charges to the slammer, the Company shall provide or restore to the Consumer any premiums to which the Consumer would have been entitled if the slam had not occurred. Such reinstatement and provision or restoration of credits shall take place even if the Company is unable to collect the Consumer's previously-paid charges from the slammer.

Subject to the availability and continuation of such access capability by the underlying facilities-based carrier (if not the Company), residential end users shall continue to have access to 911 emergency service irrespective of whether such users have contracted service from the Company, or carry debt owed to the Company.

It is the customer's responsibility to provide, and update if necessary, accurate Automatic Number Identification (ANI) and Automatic Location Identification (ALI) sub-address information to the 911 database administrator. RETURNED CHECK CHARGE

If a check for payment of any deposit, advance, or charge is returned to the Company by the bank, for any reason other than bank error, a Returned Check Charge of $15.00 will be added to the amount due.

If telephone service is disconnected or suspended for nonpayment as a result of a returned check, the Returned Check Charge, as well as any other applicable charges, must be paid before service will be re-established.

If a check received as a deposit or advance payment to establish service is returned, establishment of service will be denied until the amount of the returned check and the Returned Check Charge is paid, or, if already connected, the service will be discontinued until the Returned Check Charge and other amounts applicable to discontinuance and reestablishment of service are paid.

If a check received for prepaid service is returned prior to the end of a fully paid prepaid term, the prepaid service will automatically terminate at the end of the fully paid term unless the Returned Check Charge and the amount due for renewal of the prepaid service is paid before the end of the fully prepaid term. If a check received for prepaid service is returned after the commencement of the term for which the check was tendered, the service will be discontinued without notice. In the event prepaid service terminates or is discontinued as the result of a returned check, the service must be reestablished as a new service and all charges for establishment of new prepaid service will apply. The Customer will be liable for the amount of the Returned Check Charge, plus any unpaid charges for services rendered (recurring charges will be prorated), irrespective of whether service is re-established.
